Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This application has been examined. Claims 1- 20 are pending.

Priority

This application claims benefits of priority from Foreign Application 01123485.3 filed September 28, 2001 with the EUROPEAN PATENT OFFICE (EPO) .

The effective date of the claims described in this application is September 28, 2001.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 04/22/2003 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 20 recites a 'computer product incorporating instructions'. The Examiner notes that 'computer product' was not defined in the Specifications, and hence may read on non-statutory subject matter such as a computer program. Computer programs claimed as computer listings per se, i.e., the descriptions or expressions of the programs, are not physical "things." They are neither computer components nor statutory processes, as they are not "acts" being performed. Claims that read on both statutory and non-statutory subject matter are considered non-statutory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kraenzel et al. (US Patent 6742026) hereinafter referred to as Kraenzel .

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 1 - A system for managing access of a remote user to downloadable resources, comprising: a central computer, including, a first database for storing user information; (Figures 5 thru 7, Column 35 Lines 25-30) a script file containing information establishing access rights of said user to a user resource; (Column 20 Lines 20-35) and a centralized user manager program (Column 36 Lines 30-35) for accessing the first database and the script file, and downloading the script file to the remote user. (Column 35 Lines 45-50)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 2 - The system according to claim 1, further comprising a remote computer being remotely coupled to the central computer. (Figure 6, Figure 9, Column 9 Lines 65)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 3 - The system according to claim 2, that executes a local user management program that creates a local resource database for a user after login of the user. (Figure 6, Figure 9, Column 35 Lines 30-35, Column 36 Lines 30-35)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 4 - The system of claim 3, wherein the local user management program loads the script files from the central computer. (Column 35 Lines 45-50)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 5 - The system of claim 2, wherein the local user management program creates the local resources database based on the script file. (Figure 9, Column 36 Lines 35-40)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 6 - The system of claim 1, wherein the script file includes a qualifier representative of the type of access granted to the user of a particular resource. (Column 20 Lines 25-35)

Kraenzel disclosed Claim 7 - The system of claim 1, wherein the central computer is coupled to the remote user through the Internet. (Figure 6, Figure 9, Column 9 Lines 65)

Claims 8-12 describe a system with the same limitations as Claims 1-7. Claims 8-12 are rejected on the same basis as Claims 1-7, as disclosed by Kraenzel .

Claims 13-19 describe a method with the same limitations as Claims 1-7. Claims 13-19 are rejected on the same basis as Claims 1-7, as disclosed by Kraenzel .

Claim 20 describes a computer product for Claim 13. Claim 20 is rejected on the same basis as Claims 1-7, as disclosed by Kraenzel .

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Please refer to the enclosed PTO-892 form.
